Louise Goodwin (BOF)

Louise Goodwin is a retired financial industry's professional. She has a BA in Mathematics and some advanced training in Human Resources. She has earned a "Professional in Human Resources" HR Certification" from the HR Certification Institute and has successfully passed two American Society of Pension Professionals and Actuaries exams.

"We make a living by what we get, but we make a life by what we give." - Winston Churchill

"To be involved is to witness the good and the bad. I strive to make the bad better and to the make the good even better!"

Louise has lived in Andover for five years and is actively involved in the community. She is on the Andover Norton Commission and on the Memorial Day Committee. Louise has served for four years on the Board of Finance with diligence and commitment and is very happy to run again.

Kim Hawes (Fire Comm)

Kim has lived in Andover for more than 35 years and is retired. She currently serves on the Recreation Commission, Commission on Aging, Fire Department and the Community Emergency Response Team. She is also a Justice of the Peace and has had the pleasure of performing several weddings in town. Kim has been a youth basketball coach for many years and enjoys working with our younger population.

"I believe in working with others, regardless of political party, to ensure that Andover continues to be a wonderful community for all of us."

As an EMT with the Andover Volunteer Fire Department, Kim has seen first hand the commitment and dedication of our volunteers. She would like to be part of the decision-making process to ensure our firefighters and EMTs have the resources and training necessary to continue to protect and serve our community.

Caitlin McIntosh Greenhouse (BOE)

Dr. Caitlin McIntosh is a practicing veterinarian and co-owner of a practice in Glastonbury, CT. She completed undergraduate studies at Connecticut College and graduated from Ohio State with her DVM in 2009. After practicing in upstate New York for six years, Caitlin returned to Connecticut and settled with her family in Andover in 2015. When not working, she spends most of her time with husband Mike, sons Elijah (10) & Wynston (5) and their small farm of chickens, goats, sheep, horses, a dog and two cats.

As a member of the Board of Education, Caitlin has strived to help town boards work together rather than against each other. Her main goals have been to increase community involvement in the school system and increase communication between the school board and the surrounding community. With two children in the local school system and a firmly cemented place in our community, she finds it very important to remain active in town governance. She believes in setting a good example of compromise and collaboration for our children and our town.

Linda L. Armstrong (BAA)

Linda has lived in Andover since 1995 and raised her two children here. She currently serves on the BAA and has taken BAA Training.

"I believe in giving back to the Andover community for being such a wonderful place to raise my children, and I believe in treating all residents who come before the BAA with fairness and integrity."

Linda has held board positions on the Andover Elementary School PTA, COOL Program, and Andover Cub Scout Pack 124. She currently is involved on the Andover Norton Commission, Andover Democratic Town Committee, and the Andover Historical Society. She volunteers for the RIHAM Lacrosse and Football parent organizations. Linda has also been involved with the CERT Team, and served on the Andover 175th Anniversary Committee.

Brian Briggs (BOF)

Brian is a teacher at Windham Middle School. He is deeply involved in the Andover community. He is a member of the PTA and the Recreation Commission, and coaches Windham Middle School Cross Country and Basketball.

Brian has a calm, reassuring manner and the unique ability to "listen more than talk." He looks for ways to facilitate dialogue and avoid confrontation.

He understands the need for community involvement in current and future decision making.

"I believe it is important to respect, value, and encourage the involvement of Andover residents in decisions that have an effect on our community."

Brian has a BA in Criminal Justice and a BS in Physical Education and Health (June 2021). He and his wife have two children.

Anne Cremé (BOS, P&Z)

Anne is a retired teacher and has lived in Andover for 18 years. She is Vice Chair of the Planning and Zoning Commission, and serving because she wants to help Andover move ahead.

"A great thing about Andover is that a person's vote can make a difference. Still, we also need to be involved in our town to make it the best it can be."

Anne is calm and quiet, but with a steely reserve. She listens well to everyone in town and will be a voice of reason where hot-headedness too often prevails.

Anne will bring respect and consideration to the Board of Selectmen, which currently needs a degree of humility.

Annamarie Daigle (P&Z Alt)

Annamarie and her family have resided in Andover since 2001.

"I have always felt it was important to give back to the community to make a difference, even in a small way. Over the years I have met so many great people through volunteering in our little town. Learning from others and seeing the positive changes here over the years has inspired me to continue to help Andover become an even greater place to live and raise a family."

Annamarie is a creative thinker and always ready to step up and offer her insight to get things done.

Annamarie previously served on the board of Andover Youth Soccer, and was a member of the Andover 175th Anniversary Committee. She has served as a Recreation Commission member for more than eight years and is currently the Secretary of the Democratic Town Committee. Annmarie works as an Executive Secretary with the State of Connecticut.

Vote November 7!

We are proud to present a slate of experienced, competent, and compassionate candidates for election to Andover's boards.

Andover Democrats

Scott Person (BOS, P&S, ZBA)

Scott Person has been on Andover's Board of Selectmen for the past four years and has served on the Planning and Zoning Commission for the past eight years. Scott has been very involved in the planning and development of the new Community/Senior Center in Andover, which is now under construction.

Scott has spent a lot of time clearing out and creating a walkway along the Hop River and helping to maintain the Veterans Memorial Field on Long Hill Road. He also has been involved with the Hop River Rail Trail. Andover's walking/biking portion of the East Coast Greenway.

Scott grew up in Andover and has lived here for much of his life. He is a Renewable and Environmental Professional and lives in town with his wife, Lauren Person, who is the Assistant Town Clerk.

William Munroe (ZBA)

"It would be a privilege to continue as a Commissioner with the Andover Zoning Board of Appeals....All I need is your support."

Due to a retirement vacancy, Bill was recently nominated and appointed as Andover's Chair of the Inland Wetlands and Watercourses Commission. Several years ago he volunteered for the Zoning Board of Appeals and was appointed as a commissioner member.

Bill Munroe and his wife, Ali, have lived in Andover for more than thirty years. He is a proud graduate with an Associate's Degree in Public Administration. Bill is now retired, having been a package delivery driver in a stressful position for the past 15 years. He has a passion for the environment and the desire to serve the community in which he lives.

Jay Kamins (BOF, ZBA)

Jay and his wife, Kimberly, have been Andover residents for 20 years. Their daughter attended Andover Elementary and graduated from RHAM with honors. Jay has volunteered for the town in the past, creating the original version of the Andover website, and serving as an Assistant Registrar of Voters. He's been a member of the Democratic Town Committee for several years. Jay works at Medtronic (North Haven) as a Principal Designer, working on the next generation of Surgical Robotics that assist doctors to treat patients more safely and help them heal faster.

Throughout the years, he's written several editorials for the Riverast, urging political consensus and collaboration.

"Everything seems to be divided down party lines these days, but it doesn't have to be that way. Residents in Andover share common needs and hopes, and it will be my job to ensure their voices are heard and represented, regardless of affiliation."

Shannon Loudon (BOE)

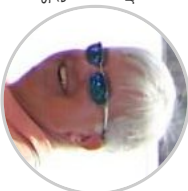

Shannon O. Loudon has volunteered on Andover's Board of Education for the past eight years, serving as its Chair and its Secretary. She wants to continue to serve all students and citizens of Andover as a member of the important BOE.

As a member of the BOE for the past eight years, Shannon has volunteered significant time to:

- negotiating the contracts for AES employees
- directly participating in the successful searches for Superintendent Brunneau and Principal Parker
- serving as the BOE's liaison to the Capital Improvement Planning Committee
- helping to revise the BOE's policy manual

Shannon and her husband, Fred Oliver, who is a science teacher, have lived in Andover for 20 years and their son, William Oliver, greatly benefited from his education at AES. Shannon has been a lawyer for 30 years and specializes in matrimonial law and mediation.

Jeff Maguire (1st Sel)

Jeff Maguire has been the First Selectman for Andover for the past four years and served as the Town's Vice First Selectman for the four years prior to that. As the First Selectman, Jeff leads the Board of Selectmen ("BOS") in setting policy and strategic direction for Andover. He and the BOS work in partnership with the Town Administrator, Eric Anderson. Over recent years, Jeff has developed the strong working relationship with Eric that is necessary for overseeing the day-to-day business of the town.

Jeff is a Certified Public Accountant and the Managing Partner and co-founder of Clearly Clean Products, LLC, which invented, patented and manufactures 100% recyclable food trays. He has lived in Andover for 22 years with his wife, Danielle, and their two adult children.

Emily Timreck (BAA)

Emily has lived in Andover since 1985. She has prior experience with the BAA, having served for three years. While serving, she had BAA training. Emily has experience with other Town Assessors via the BAA training. She is also trained in real estate.

"I feel it is important to have fair and equitable assessments and appraisals for all town property owners. I will listen to all concerns brought to the BAA."

Emily is a former member of the Andover Beautification Committee, and Town Publication Committee. She has volunteered with Friends of the Library, helping with fundraisers. She has also assisted with:

- Senior Lunch fundraisers
- Andover's 175th Anniversary Committee
- Townsend Cemetery Tour
- Hebron Fair Craft Building (as a Volunteer)
- East Hampton Art Association (as a Hospitality Volunteer)
- ALPOA

Mark Williams (Fire Comm)

Mark has lived in Andover for more than 44 years. He attended RHAM and joined the Andover Fire Department in 1978. He is now the Senior Captain of the Department and goes on ambulance and fire calls.

"It is important to help the town prepare for the future."

Mark has served on the Fire Commission for two years. He is an Emergency Medical Responder and enjoys being on the Commission, but he is best known for his quiet, compassionate demeanor with ambulance patients.
