

Patrick Dougherty (P&Z Alt)

Patrick Dougherty is an aerospace inspector who has been an Andover resident since 2007. He has previously served on the Andover Economic Development Committee and also Planning and Zoning. His main focus is to support local and home based businesses while sustaining the character of Andover.

Louise Goodwin (BOF)

Louise Goodwin is a retired financial industry's professional. She possesses a BA in Mathematics with some Human Resource's graduate school training. She has earned a "Professional in Human Resources HR Certification". (PHR) from the HR Certification Institute - HRCI and has successfully passed two "American Society of Pension Professionals and Actuaries (ASPPA)" exams.

"We make a living by what we get, but we make a life by what we give." - Winston Churchill

"To be involved is to witness the good and the bad. I strive to make the bad better and to make the good even better!"

Louise has lived in Andover for 5 years and is very actively involved in the community. She is on the Andover Norton Commission and on the Memorial Day Committee. She has served for 4 years on the Board of Finance with diligence and commitment and is very happy to run again.

Kim Hawes (FC)

Kim has lived in Andover for over 35 years and is retired. She currently serves on the Recreation Commission, Commission on Aging, Fire Department and the Community Emergency Response Team. She is also a Justice of the Peace and has had the pleasure to perform several weddings in town. She's been a youth basketball coach for many years and enjoys working with our younger population.

"I believe in working with others regardless of political party to ensure Andover continues to be a wonderful community for all of us."

As an EMT with the Andover Volunteer Fire Department, Kim has seen first hand the commitment and dedication of our volunteers. She would like to be part of the decision making process to ensure our firefighters and EMT's have the resources and training necessary to continue to protect and serve our community.

Jay Kamins (BOF)

Jay and wife Kimberly have been Andover residents for 20 years. Their daughter attended Andover Elementary and graduated RHAM with honors. Jay has volunteered for the town in the past, creating the original version of the Andover website and as an Assistant Registrar of Voters. He's been a member of the Democratic Town Committee for several years. Jay works as at Medtronic (North Haven) as a Principal Designer, working on the next generation of Surgical Robotics that assist doctors to treat patients safer and heal faster.

Throughout the years, he's written several editorials for the RiverEast urging political consensus and collaboration.

"Everything seems to be divided down party lines these days, but it doesn't have to be that way. Residents in Andover share common needs and hopes, and it will be my job to ensure their voices are heard and represented, regardless of affiliation."

Linda L. Armstrong (BOAA)

Linda has lived in Andover since 1995, where she raised her two children. She is currently serving on the BAA, and has taken BAA Training.

"I believe in giving back to the Andover Community, for being such a wonderful place to raise my children, and I believe in treating all residents who come before the BAA with fairness and integrity."

Linda has held board positions on the Andover Elementary School PTA, COOL Program, and Andover Cub Scout Pack 124. She currently is involved on the Andover Norton Commission, Andover Democratic Town Committee, the Andover Historical Society, and volunteers for the Andover Senior Lunch Program, in addition to the RHAM Lacrosse and Football parent organizations. She has also been involved with the CERT Team, and served on the Andover 175 th Anniversary Committee.

Brian Briggs (BOF)

Brian is currently teaching at Windham Middle School. Brian is deeply involved in Andover. He is a PTO member, coaches Windham Middle School Cross Country and is a member of the Recreation Commission.

Brian has a calm, reassuring manner and the unique ability to "listen more than talk". He looks for ways to facilitate dialogue and avoid confrontation.

He understands the need for community involvement in current and future decision making.

"I believe it is important to respect, value, and encourage the involvement of Andover residents in decisions that have an effect on our community."

Brian has a BA in Criminal Justice and a BS in Physical Education and Health (June 2021). He and his wife have two children.

Anne Cremé (BOS, P&Z)

Anne is a retired teacher and has lived in Andover for 18 years. She is Vice Chair of the Planning and Zoning Commission, serving because she wants to help Andover move ahead.

"A great thing about Andover is that a person's vote can make a difference. Still, we also need to be involved in our town to make it the best it can be."

Anne is calm and quiet, but with a steady reserve. She listens well to everyone in town and will be a voice of reason where hot-headedness too often prevails.

Anne will bring respect and consideration to the BOS which currently needs a degree of humility.

Annamarie Daigle (P&Z Alt)

Annamarie and her family have resided in Andover since 2007.

"I have always felt it was important to give back to the community, to make a difference, even in a small way. Over the years I have met so many great people through volunteering in our little town. Learning from others and seeing the positive changes here over the years has inspired me to continue to help Andover become an even greater place to live and raise a family."

Annamarie is a creative thinker and always ready to step up and offer insight to get things done.

Annamarie previously served on the board of Andover Youth Soccer, and was a member of the Andover 175th Anniversary Committee. She has served as a Recreation Commission member for the past 8-plus years and is currently Secretary of the Democratic Town Committee. She works full time as an Executive Secretary with the State of Connecticut.

Vote November 7!

We are proud to present a slate of experienced, competent, and compassionate candidates for election to Andover's boards.

Andover Democrats

He is from a family of educators and is a passionate believer in public education. He has a BA and an MA in math from Wesleyan University and works as a computer programmer by trade.

"Andover has been a great place to live and raise my children. I'm looking forward to giving back to the community again."

Scott raised two wonderful children in town, through Andover Elementary and RHAM, and is a brand new grandfather! He has lived in Andover over 25 years.

Scott has served on the Andover Board of Education, The Capital Improvement and Planning Commission, and the Democratic Town Committee. He was a founding member of the Andover Website Committee.

Scott Sauyet (RHAM)

(John is a little camera-shy. ☺)

John grew up in Glastonbury, and has worked for The Rivercrest, East Hampton High School, UCONN, and is now at Medtronic, where he gathers and analyzes employee sentiment to drive strategy for company executives.

John will listen to residents' needs ensure they receive the available services, find affordable means to fund missing necessary services. He will work to boost tax revenue by attracting more businesses to town.

"Responsibility, inclusiveness, equity, integrity, and civility are key concepts that I would bring to the table in order to help try to bridge the gap between Democrats and Republicans, to really drive home the point that, as elected officials, our job is to serve our community and be responsive to their needs."

John Tyczkowski (BOF)

Scott Person (BOS, Z&D)

William Munroe (ZBA)

Bill Munroe and his wife All have lived in Andover for over thirty years. He's a proud graduate with an associates degree in public administration. As a retired thirty-five year package delivery man, his interests include a passion for the environment. He's an avid hiker with the desire to serve the community he lives in.

"It would be a privilege to continue as a commissioner with the Andover Zoning Board of Appeals...All I need is your support."

Due to a retirement vacancy, Bill was recently nominated and appointed Andover's Chairman of the Inlands Wetlands and Watercourses Commission. Several years ago he volunteered for the Zoning Board of Appeals and was appointed as a commissioner member.

Mark Williams (FC)
